Summary

I took my first step towards becoming a pilot in 2019 when I enrolled in the Pilotage Department at Bahçeşehir University. By June 2023, I successfully completed my training and obtained my CPL licence. In July 2023, I graduated from Bahçeşehir University's Pilotage Department, ranking third in the university and first in the faculty and department. I commenced my Master's degree in Aviation Management at the same university in October 2023. During my flight training, During my education, I took courses on aviation safety, risk and crisis management, quality management and other important topics of both aviation and today's business world. I have adopted the principle of continuous self-improvement and I am constantly receiving trainings in this direction.
